

There are several ways to get from the Hartsfield–Jackson Atlanta International Airport (ATL) to the Crowne Plaza Atlanta Perimeter at Ravinia, TNBA’s headquarters hotel. You can take advantage of car rentals, bus, or Uber, opportunities, but the quickest, less expensive way is by using marta, Atlanta’s rapid transit system. Marta will take you from the Airport, through Atlanta and to the Hotel in Dunwoody in record breaking time.

At baggage claim, follow the signs to MARTA station. There you will see the ticket kiosk.

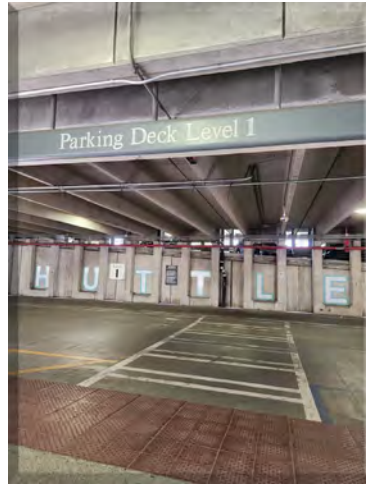

On the kiosk, press MARTA and follow directions. Purchase the single fare of $2.50 plus $1.00 for the Breeze ticket and place the Breeze ticket in front of the blue sensor to open the doors. Go up and you will want to get on the Red Line North.

Make sure it says North Springs. Stay on the train all the way to Dunwoody.

Exit at Dunwoody station. You will exit on the 3rd level, “3 PLATFORM” but will want to go down to level 1; the elevator will say “1 BUSWAY.”

This station is 2 blocks from the hotel but there is a shuttle service. Exiting the elevator, you will see the shuttle area. The hotel has a shuttle service that comes every 15 minutes. Make sure you get on the shuttle that says “Ravinia.” It will take you directly to the hotel. You can also call the hotel directly once on the train to let them know to pick you up.
