Scholarships & Prizes

ENTRY FEES AND REFUNDS: Entry - $150 per event. No refunds and no exceptions.

PRIZE LIST: The prize fund will be paid at 100% for the Century Doubles and Open Doubles Events at a ratio of at least 1:10. Scholarships and premium prizes may be awarded for the Adult/Youth Mixer Event. Multiple criteria for scholarships may include: advanced bowling accomplishments, scholastic achievements, community involvement, tournaments scores from January 14, 2024, and/or other measures as determined by the tournament committee (see scholarship application for details). Both adults and youth will be eligible to win premium prizes which may include: bowling balls, autographed memorabilia, tournament entry vouchers, travel vouchers, and more. Youth bowlers must establish a smart account prior to receiving a scholarship (or have an existing smart account.) - no exceptions. Maximum one scholarship permitted annually.

FORMAT: Each event will comprise six games: Three Scotch Doubles, and Three Baker's Doubles.

AVERAGE AND HANDICAP: The combined book averages may not exceed 450 per team based on the highest 2022–23 sanctioned winter league averages of 21 or more games in any one league. The team average handicap is 90% of 225.

DEADLINE: Deadline for entry is December 15, 2023. Early bird entries will be eligible for additional drawings and prizes (early bird date - December 1st). No walk-in entries permitted.

SPECTATORS: Events are open to bowling participants and invited guests only. Spectators that wish to attend will be asked to donate $10 for entry per event (to be paid in advance only) and this amount may be added to the Adult/Youth Event. All spectator donations must be submitted with bowling fees/form. No walk in spectators permitted. There may be drawings for spectators at each event.

AGE REQUIREMENTS: The combined ages of team members for the Century Doubles must complete at least 100 years as of January 1, 2024. The minimum age for the Open Doubles is 18 as of January 1, 2024. The minimum age for youth is 12 as of January 1, 2024. The maximum age for youth is 18 as of December 31, 2023.

DRAWINGS: Any youth that does not have a partner to bowl with may submit an application (for scholarship, eligibility and prizes) and will be paired with the adult volunteers. Any youth that desires to bowl with a pro/celebrity will be entered in a drawing on January 13, 2024. The 450 team average will be waived if the team average exceeds the requirement due to a drawing.

SUBSTITUTIONS: Substitutions may be permitted, but must be made at least one hour prior to the scheduled bowling event time. Contact the tournament manager for all substitutions. No walk-in substitutes will be allowed and no refunds will be given.

PROS: Any person (pro or celebrity) with a TNBA membership card is eligible to bowl in this tournament providing all other criteria is met.

SANCTION: Due to the modified format of these events, this tournament is not sanctioned.

SPONSOR: This event is being sponsored by Friends for Fun, Diana Collins – Tournament Manager, in partnership with TNBA, Mookie Betts, Michael Harris, and Celebrity Friends. The tournament officials will make the final decision when matters/questions arise, and their ruling shall be final.
